WE

teachers!

Perry Township Education Foundation wants to show the love! We want to honor all education professionals who make such a positive difference in students' lives.

While they continue to do great things, we all want to support them! Perry Township families and friends we need your help to show how much an educator means to you. We are offering to put signs at your favorite educators school with their name on them with your Honor an Educator donation. Just visit our site to make it happen! Click the link and make sure you give us their name and school no later than April 23rd.
